

A TOUCHING SCENE

Scottish Rite Masons Gather Around Albert Pike's Grave.

THE LAMENTED DEAD

Simple but Solemn Services Held Today Over His Ashes.

TRIBUTES TO HIS WORTH

The Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Masons, in accordance with a resolution passed yesterday, made a pilgrimage to Oak Hill cemetery today, and at the grave of the late Gen. Albert Pike inaugurated services which are to be observed at each triennial session of the order hereafter.

AFTER THE BUCKET SHOPS

District Attorney Birney Will Test the Law.

He Directs That a Warrant Be Sworn Out Under the General Act Against Gambling.

District Attorney Birney, believing that the average bucket shop is nothing more than an ordinary gambling house, has issued a warrant for the arrest of the manager of a bucket shop on F street, and has directed that a warrant be sworn out under the general act against gambling.

THE ST. MARK'S CASE.

It Will Probably Not Be Heard Until Next Monday.

WHERE CARS SHOULD STOP.

A POLICE Regulation to Be Framed Governing the Matter.

Among the features of the new police regulations will be a section relating to the stopping of street cars. At the present time there is no general rule followed by the several railroad companies relative to which side of the street the cars shall stop.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

Frank T. Clark Secured Funds by Signing Another's Name.

Julian Wall Sues for Divorce.

Electors Fought at Kansas City.

Nearly 1,000 Miles in a Day.

Hannigan Placed on Trial.

The Family Doctor.

Dear Little Johnny.

A Child Severely Burned.

Need of Help Then.

Decided to Stay.

A Terrible Threat.

Both Good Shots.

An Executive Woman.

TO BE SOON REMOVED

Dr. Spaight, the Present Vice Consul at Demarara.

His Intemperate Interests and Pro-English Opinions Likely to Cost Him His Office.

Dr. Spaight holds the office of vice consul of the United States at Demarara, British Guiana, at present, but, according to a general understanding in official circles, he will not continue to do so much longer.

Will Soon Be Removed.

Why He Was Appointed.

THE CASE.

Why He Was Appointed.

EX-SENATOR VAN WYCK'S DEATH.

The End Came Yesterday Afternoon After a Brief Illness.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

DELEGATES TO BE CHOSEN

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

DISCIPLINE OF THE ARMY

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

Dr. Elliott's View of the Approaching Diocesan Convention.

The Work of the General Convention.

Discipline of the Army.

Gen. Breckinridge Makes an Interesting Biennial Report.

Thousands of Applications for Enlistment—Competent and Efficient Officers.

The annual report of Gen. Breckinridge, Inspector general of the army, which has just been made to the Secretary of War, shows that the army has attained a high standard of discipline, and that the officers generally are very competent and efficient.

THEODORE THOMAS

One of the Greatest Musical Directors.

In Charge of the World's Fair Music.

He Has Just Celebrated His Golden Jubilee.

One of the most eminent musicians, violinists and leaders is Theodore Thomas of Chicago, well known to all musicians at home and abroad. Wherever the violin is known the name of Theodore Thomas has been heard.

Mr. Thomas has just celebrated his golden jubilee as Musical Director in America. Fifty years as a leader of an orchestra is a record that it is hard to equal.

Mr. Thomas has always had to contend with a great nervous strain and tiring brainwork, and is a firm believer in the greatest tonic known, Johann Hoff's Malt Extract.

Here is what a man of his prominence has to say about this preparation: "The JOHANN HOFF'S Malt Extract is used in my family, and deserves the highest commendation."

Ask for the Genuine JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT. All others are worthless imitations.

WOMEN DOCTORS IN ENGLAND.

Their Path Now Made Easy—The Requirements for Success.

The woman physician no longer finds her path thorny in England. Mrs. Garrett Anderson, M. D., has been writing for the British Journal on the status and qualifications of women practitioners, and shows that their hardest days are over. Her first statement is that it is as easy at this moment for a woman to get a complete medical education in Great Britain as it is for a man, the course of education and the necessary expenditure being practically the same for both sexes; the same examinations must be passed, and the same qualifications and diplomas must be obtained by either sex. Some of the examining bodies, such as the Royal College of Surgeons in England, do not admit women to examination, but even with them there is no direct opposition, and hours are set apart for the women, and are directed solely for the convenience of women students. The degrees of the universities of London, Durham, and the medical colleges of Edinburgh, Glasgow and Ireland, and the license of Apothecaries' Hall are now open to women. The Royal College for examination in many medical schools, some of which are open for women only, and some for men and women together.

SCORED WITH THE JURY.

The Lawyer's Wit Won the Case for Him.

Some gray-haired lawyer-politicians sat in an up-town hotel talking over their early experiences. The conversation was opened by the man from up the state remarking:

"I see that old Dennis Keeny has just died up in my native town. He was one of the last of the old-style lawyers who relied for winning their cases not on their knowledge of law, but on their acquaintance with human nature. He was one of the best specimens of the class, too. Stories of his retorts and witty sayings are told all over his own and the adjoining counties."

"The first time I ever heard him was in the town of New York, where he was shooting into a party that had come to 'horn him, a form of country celebration that you have probably heard about. Keeny appeared for the defendant. It was shown that the gun with which the shooting was done was loaded with dried peas, instead of lead. Finally, a very dirty-looking witness was called, and directed to show the jury the exact spot where the peas took effect. The fellow demurred, saying that the shooting had been done in the evening, and that he could not remember. At last, with great reluctance, the witness drew up his right trousers leg, exposing a limb well covered with dirt. Pointing to the spots, he said, 'There, that's blacker than the rest, the witness said.'"

"There; that's where they went in. He was turned to the jury, and in his most impressive manner said: 'Gentlemen, I leave it to your knowledge of crops; if peas had been planted in the soil of this town, they would be in blossom now.'"

"The witness retired in confusion, and Keeny won his case."

A STRANGE BED FELLOW.

Unusual Experience of a Family Living in a Dog-Out.

From the Minneapolis Messenger.

A. R. Goodwyn rather had an amusing incident but what might have proved a serious accident which occurred near the Lincoln county line. Aaron Woody, with his family, lives in a small dog-out near Barnum, and one night last week Sam White's cattle broke out and one of the steers weighing about sixteen hundred pounds wandered onto the roof of the dog-out and went directly to the roof. The dog-out was a wooden structure, and the steers were on the roof. The dog-out was a wooden structure, and the steers were on the roof. The dog-out was a wooden structure, and the steers were on the roof.

Whiskers and Character.

From Harper's Bazar.

"I don't know a greater shock," said the young woman, thoughtfully, when the front door had closed after Maine and we were together on the veranda—"hardly that of seeing what illness has done to the face—coming upon a man whom we have always known with a mustache or beard and finding him with none. Sides of his character we never suspected, weaknesses which I had thought had been hidden, and a doctor was sent for, but it speedily recovered and no serious injury except a terrific scare resulted from the accident. This is a great country, where cattle wander on top of the houses and fall in on people while they are asleep."

An Executive Woman.

From an Exchange.

Jinks—"I never saw a house where everything ran so smoothly as at Broadgrin's."